

Remember to include us on your company PR distribution list. Send To: news@bellow.press
Please include high resolution photos along with your release; at least 8 megapixels. You can submit online at:
<https://bellow.press/SubmitNews>

MANUFACTURER

ergoCentric Opens New showroom&store Inside Toronto's Historic King Edward Hotel

➊ The new showroom&store of ergoCentric Seating Systems inside downtown Toronto's historic Omni King Edward Hotel has opened.

Showroom&store will serve as the company's leading retail location, as well as its primary showroom. From ergoCentric's sought-after tCentric Hybrid high-performance task chair to height-adjustable tables and ergonomic office accessories, visitors are able to talk to ergonomic experts about how to best outfit their office and can be fitted for an ergoCentric task chair suited for their specific needs.

"We receive a lot of requests from individuals asking if they can buy the ergoCentric task chair they sit on at work for their home," said Terry Cassaday, founder of ergoCentric. "We wanted to ensure our task chairs are available to the general public, which is why we opened our new showroom&store. It gives individuals and corporations a chance to easily browse and shop our complete line of ergonomic office furniture and accessories."

The new 4,000-square-foot ergoCentric showroom&store is in the heart of downtown Toronto at 37 King Street East. Every item on display can be purchased and taken away immediately, or can be ordered to suit any number of body types, tasks or environments. With a modular approach to manufacturing, ergoCentric configures thousands of different ergonomic chairs for its customers. Apple, NASA, Nike and thousands of other organizations use ergoCentric seating.

DEALER GROUPS

ISG Announces Merge of Three Dealer Groups

➋ Three dealer groups — Independent Suppliers Group (ISG), Trimega Purchasing Association (TPA) and Pinnacle Affiliates LLC (PA) — are merging. The new entity is not yet named but expected to launch July 1. Its 12-member board of directors will be comprised of four people from each group. The organization will be structured as a cooperative with Trimega and Pinnacle merging into Independent Suppliers Group, the surviving entity.

Substantial operational savings are expected with the merging of the three groups, which serve approximately 1,000 dealers.